Terry Water Treatment Scale Elimination. Pure & Simple

Selection Guide

At TERRY, we know it is far better to control water rather than just manage what Mother Nature provides. Using our proprietary scale elimination technology, TERRY eliminates existing scale build-up. More impressive is its ability to maintain a scale preventative environment.

At the heart of the TERRY product philosophy is a firm commitment to provide real solutions to end-users. It is not just another “scale reducer” technology that is plagued by inconsistent results that are only effective in certain regions of the world. We control water everywhere, regardless of the geographic location. Never before has there been a more effective stand-alone scale elimination technology than TERRY scale elimination.

TERRY

Terry is continuously striving to develop the most innovative and advanced water treatment for the food service industry. In order for food service equipment to operate at the most efficient level possible, it requires water treatment that can eliminate the harmful effects of hard water scale. We have developed water treatment specifically designed to eliminate scale.

We manufacture a variety of products to meet the needs of equipment used in restaurants, hospitals, schools, commercial kitchens, misting systems and an array of other applications where scale is a problem.

Scale problems are the root cause of virtually all equipment service calls. Water with scale prevents equipment from performing as specified and causes premature breakdown of the equipment. The Terry product line provides a proprietary technology, which has been proven for almost four decades, to provide scale elimination solutions around the world.

Utilizing a proprietary formulation of CITRYNE[®], Terry products eliminate scale without the use of hazardous chemicals. The specialized mechanical release technology provides a scale-free environment in an ongoing basis.
